YOUR HAIR IS FLUFFY, BEAUTIFUL AND LUSTROUS IN A FEW MOMENTS

Girls! Get a 25-cent Bottle of "Danderine" and Try This.
Also Stops Falling Hair; Destroys Dandruff

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

CHINESE GRADUATE OF HARVARD COMES HOME

Charles Ahfook Wong, who graduated from Punahou in 1899, arrived this morning on the Mongolia from Harvard University, from which he graduated with honors. He is an exceptionally bright student, having finished his college course at Harvard in three years, and during the past year taking his master's degree, specializing in economics.

Mr. Wong has financed his own education. He held a position in this city with the Spreckels Bank for nine years, during which he saved the necessary funds to fulfill his ambition. At Punahou he graduated with the highest honors in scholarship and was the first Chinese student to win the first prize in the Doman rhetorical contest. The scholarship record established by him at Harvard was also very creditable.

With the graduation of Mr. Wong, the local Chinese community now claims five graduates from colleges in the mainland—Dr. E. Y. Chang, Northwestern University; Kim Tong Ho, University of Wisconsin; Charles A. Wong, Harvard; H. S. Chuck, Stanford and Cornell; and H. Y. Ching, University of California.

Mr. Wong was the first president of the Chinese Students' Alliance which was organized here through his influence.

THE MIRRORS OF THE ELEVATOR

The mirrors in the elevator car are interfering with public convenience and it is therefore decreed that they must go. The owners of some of New York's biggest buildings are setting the example; of course, others will follow.

The indictment against the mirror that so long has found a conspicuous place in the car of the elevator is a serious one. It is found that its presence there serves to retard speed, and the demand is ever for more speed and still more. Those who ride in elevators consume so much time in primping at the mirrors, seeing that the hat is on straight or that the scarfpin is in exactly the right place, that serious delays ensue. Many of them are so lost in this kind of self-contemplation that when they reach their destination they are not ready to alight. Then the car has to wait and precious time is lost.

The elevator mirror may have served a useful purpose when elevator cars crawled up and down the shafts. Passengers then had to be provided with some means of passing pleasantly the weary moments. But elevator cars no longer crawl, and the mirrors have become, not merely an incongruous feature of their furnishings, but a positive drawback to their operation. —Cincinnati Times-Star.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Gives Instant Relief and the Relief Lasts

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

"Do you love me very much, mamma?"
Mamma (a widow)—Yes, of course, my dear.

"Then why don't you marry the man at the candy store?"
